Dr. Sir:

Houghton Mifflin Company of Boston published a book on Lincoln by Schurz in 1907. and on the front outside cover they printed a medallion of Lincoln from a bronze medal made by Francky Magniadas, a Frenchman I believe.

I have one of those medals and would like very much to know the full history of it. and wrote the publishers to see if they could furnish it.

Received a very nice letter giving me as much information as they had. and kindly referred me to you as the owners from whom they borrowed it.

Will you kindly give me the entire history of the medal, including date and under whose auspices it was issued and greatly oblige?

Yours very truly

E. G. Ingersoll
